General Information

The mission of Plains Regional Medical Center (PRMC) is to improve the health of individuals, families and communities in Eastern New Mexico and West Texas. PRMC is managed by Presbyterian Healthcare Services, the state's only private, not-for-profit healthcare system.

The 106-bed hospital serves more than 110,000 people living within a 100-mile radius of the City of Clovis. Each year, employees at PRMC care for approximately:

14,200	emergency room patients
4,900	hospital patients
500	home health patients
1,200	newborns
3,700	surgery patients
1,200	cancer patients
38,000	Medical Group Patients

Growing by leaps and bounds

PRMC is committed to bringing state-of-the-art healthcare to Clovis. We've recently brought new services to benefit our community such as: Sleep Disorders Center, Cath Lab, Urology, and Endocrinology.

Healthplex Rehabilitation Center

The 15,000-square-foot state-of-the-art facility provides treatment programs to include: physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, aquatics, female health therapy, wound care clinic, neurological, cardiac rehabilitation, balance and pre-employment fitness evaluations.

Emergency Room

Built in 2005, the $6 million, technology-advanced facility includes:

- ❖ 12 ER treatment rooms, 3 trauma rooms, 4 cardiac care rooms, a psychiatric evaluation room and an isolation room

Cancer Treatment Center

Patients no longer have to travel far to receive advanced cancer care. Plains Regional Cancer Center provides radiation therapy, chemotherapy and surgical treatment options to meet the needs of patients.

Home Health and Hospice

Patients who need home-based health care or hospice care rely on our teams of nurses, therapists, social workers and other healthcare professionals.

Plains Regional Medical Group

Plains Regional Medical Group, founded in 2004, is a licensed primary care and specialty clinic that continues to expand to meet the ever-growing health needs of Eastern News Mexico and West Texas.

The medical group offers 16 specialties, including emergency medicine, endocrinology, family medicine, gastroenterology, general surgery, hematology, hepatology, infectious diseases, internal medicine, pediatrics, physical medicine and rehabilitation, pulmonology, oncology, orthopedic surgery, vascular surgery and urology.

Same day appointments and extended hours are available through the Family Medicine clinic and the Walk-in Clinic handles less serious illness and minor injuries. Both patients and non-patients have access to on-site laboratory and radiology services, including blood work, mammography, bone density testing and general x-rays.

Workforce

PRMC employees more than 570 employees and is the fourth largest employer in Clovis. To learn more about employment opportunities, please call 575-769-7159 or visit www.phs.org.

Culture of Caring

PRMC provides in-kind services, cash donations and community sponsorships to organizations, programs and causes that ultimately benefit underserved populations and whole communities.
